Celebrate International Women's Day on March 8th with Sistering at the second annual Kitchen Sisters: An Exquisite Dining Experience. This event is a collaboration of Toronto's finest women chefs and sommeliers presenting a delectable four-course meal with expertly selected wine pairings at Mildred's Temple Kitchen, 85 Hanna Avenue in the up and coming Liberty Village district. Founder and original collaborator Marion "Food Sleuth" Kane (writer, broadcaster) describes the evening so well – "The beauty of this meal was its synergy of taste, texture, goodwill and great vibes."

Sistering has been providing hot meals and other practical and emotional support to poor, homeless, marginalized and low-income women in Toronto since 1981. Last year, between January and September, Sistering served 151,000 meals, and the demand continues to rise.

"Since moving to our home on Bloor Street, we have seen the numbers of women we serve increase by 40 per cent in the past four years ... Our kitchen is now too small for the number of meals we serve daily" says Sheryl Lindsay, Executive Director of Sistering. "Building on the success of last year's event, please join us in making the new kitchen a reality."

The evening begins with a reception at 6 p.m., featuring passed hors d'oeuvres created by chefs Deborah Reid (George Brown College) and Carol Grey (Sistering).

A delectable four-course dinner is served at 7 p.m.:

- First course: Chefs Suzanne Baby (Gallery Grill, University of Toronto) and Trisha Beard (Sistering)
- Second Course: Chefs Christine Bib (Christine Bib Catering) and Maureen Watson (Sistering)
- Main Course: Chefs Anne Yarymowich (Art Gallery of Ontario) and Donna Doohar (Mildred's Temple Kitchen)
